Why Visual Storytelling ?

Visual stories boost engagement and participation in learning

Visual stories arouse curiosity and interest in cultural values

Visual stories have a universal appeal that transcend generations

Reaction to a visual story is a good assessment of a persons openness

Visual illustrations boost retention and recall of cultural knowledge

Research shows that after 3 days we retain 60% of what we see and only 10% of what we hear !

Why Gamification?

Harnesses the power of play

Induces a spirit of competition

Fosters problem solving

Fosters practical application of cultural knowledge

Boosts engagement and participation in learning

Our games leverage spaced repetition to boost retention of knowledge

The same cultural value is presented repeatedly in multiple contexts, from the historical to the contemporary, to reinforce learning

The following section applies to the use of Culture Buff Games in trainer-facilitated individual, group, face-to-face or virtual training

The Culture Buff Methodology

A Unique Approach to Learning Cultural Values

Learner-driven

Trainer-facilitated

Trainer facilitates discussion

Trainer brings cultural expertise

Problem Solve & Apply Knowledge Approach

- ✓ Learner-driven trainer-facilitated learning tool
- ✓ Problem-solving & practical application of knowledge approach to learning
- ✓ Trainer facilitates discussion about the cultural value and fosters sharing of different perspectives

Using Our Games In A Trainer-Facilitated Training

Individuals, Couples or Groups

1

The cultural trainer explains to the trainee(s) that there are four generally accepted cultural values or value ideals on the right-hand panel. Each mini-story is a possible cultural scenario. The mini-story presented is only one representation, among many, of the correct generally accepted cultural value or value ideal.

2

The trainer then asks the trainee(s) to match the mini-story with the cultural value that it best represents.

3

Through trial and error, the trainee(s) problem solves and matches the mini-story with the cultural value that it best fits.

4

Upon clicking the correct answer, the mini-story rotates showing a detailed explanation about the specific cultural value and the story.

5

The trainer opens up a discussion about the mini-story and the cultural value and facilitates a sharing of different perspectives.
